Customer Journey Map

Map out the customer's experience stage-by-stage, capturing their actions, touchpoints, thoughts, and feelings, along with process ownership and improvement opportunities at each stage.

Phase of Journey	Stage 1: Discovery & Sign-Up	Stage 2: Story Prompt & AI Generation	Stage 3: Review, Edit & Share
Actions What does the customer do?	- Hears about ComicCraft from friends or social media - Opens the website - Signs up / logs in with an account	- Types a story idea with genre and characters as a prompt - Chooses an art style for the comic - Clicks the "Generate" button	- Reads the AI-generated comic story and panels - Edits the prompt or regenerates if needed - Downloads or shares the finished comic
Touchpoint What part of the service do they interact with?	- Social media / word of mouth - Landing page - Sign-up and login page	- Prompt input form - Style and character options - Loading / progress screen	- Comic viewer page - Regenerate and edit buttons - Download and share options
Customer Thought What is the customer thinking?	"What is this app about?" "Is it free and easy to use?" "Can it really make a comic from my idea?"	"Will the AI understand my idea?" "How long will it take?" "Is my prompt detailed enough?"	"Wow, the pictures match my story!" "Can I change some panels?" "I want to show this to my friends."
Customer Feeling What is the customer feeling?	Curious but a little unsure	Excited but anxious while waiting	Happy and proud (a bit frustrated if the result is off)
Process Ownership Who is in the lead on this?	Frontend Developer and UI/UX Designer	Backend Developer (FastAPI) and AI Prompt Engineer (Gemini models)	Full-stack Developer and QA Tester

Opportunities How can we improve this stage?	• Add a demo video and sample comics on the home page • One-click Google sign-in • Short "How it works" guide	• Prompt suggestions and ready-made templates • Progress bar with estimated time • More art styles and consistent characters across panels	• Panel-wise editing and regenerate option • One-click export as PDF / image • Social media sharing and a feedback rating
